AT THE DAY OF DOOM

By Juliet Wilbur Tompkins.

"That child must have his hair cut soon. I can't stand a boy in curls," said his father.

"I know, dear. Let's just wait till his fourth birthday. That's only two weeks," said his mother, running affectionate fingers into the sunny tuff. Then they talked of other things, and he crept away with a great fear spreading sickly through his little body. They were going to cut his hair! He knew how it pained and throbbed when it was only the tip of a little finger that was cut. But his whole hair, the very combing of which sometimes dragged unmanly tears from their hiding place—oh, how Leesville Letter.

The Reunion of Confederate Veterans of Lexington and surrounding counties was held here July 15th. Extensive preparations were made for the accommodation of the old veterans and the committees who had it in their hands for the preparation and entertainment, certainly do deserve credit for their faithful services.

Everyone on the streets was either being made happy by someone else, or making someone else happy. During the whole day there was no fighting or fussing at all, which speaks well for Leesville.

Early in the morning large numbers of people began to arrive. Having been made certain of a good time and knowing Leesville's hospitality they took advantage of this opportunity to come and were amply repaid. Every old Confederate Veteran was given a free barbecue dinner, and while every one not a veteran had to pay, they got a good dinner cheap.

At 10 o'clock the Confederate Veterans formed in line of march at the south end of Main street under command of that venerable old citizen and soldier, Capt. A. P. West. The veterans marched to the College, accompanied by a band and a company of little girls waving flags. Upon arriving at the College the following program was carried out. Every number was well received, especially the address given by Miss Elizabeth Lumpkin. The audience went wild with applause at the close of her address:

Music by band.

Prayer by Chaplain, Rev. W. D. Quick.

Song by children, "America."

Address of welcome, Dr. D. M. Crosson.

"Agnie Laurie," piano and concert.

Response, Dr. W. H. Timmerman for committee.

Reville, hugh, by Mr. A. M. Roselle.

Response, Col. M. D. Harmon, for Veterans.

Music by band.

"Furl the Banner," Miss Ruth Able.

Music by band.

Orator of the day, Col. Geo. P. Thompson.

Address in Camp, Miss Altha Ha.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," Quartette.

Music by band.

Address by favorite spokeswoman, Miss Elizabeth Lumpkin.

Music by band.

"Come Blue Flag," children.

"The Sentinel is Off Duty Forever," Miss Annie Crouch.

Music by band.

Dinner.

Then came a business session of the veterans, after which came music and a business session of the Sons of Veterans.

A great disappointment was experienced by everyone when it was learned that Gov. Heyward could not be present to deliver an address.

The attendance was not so large as a year ago, although there were more Veterans present.

The crowd was estimated at 5,500. The only fault to be found was that the exercises were held in too small a building.

In the afternoon the Leesville and Lexington ball teams gave a swift and lively game which resulted in a score of 19 to 10 in favor of Leesville. We are sorry for Lexington, but then we can not help being glad she was beat. The Lexington boys play fair ball but they could not hold up to the article Leesville presented them with last Friday. If Lexington can arrange to come this way again we think we can repeat the dose. And such rooting, oh, such rooting! Was the like ever heard before in this old county? Lexington had her band, but it played little. When the game was over the boys marched away to the music of a funeral march played by the aforesaid musical aggregation.

Friday evening the young folks enjoyed a social given at the home of Dr. James Crosson.

Saturday afternoon the Lone Star Brass Band, of Batesburg, was on our streets and rendered some good music.

Mr. Pierce Etheredge and Miss Hattie Long and Clara Kish from Saluda county, former students of Leesville College, spent a few days here last week with friends.

Mr. A. H. Shull, of New Brookland, was here last Friday.

Mr. J. J. Lown, of Irene, visited here last week.

Dr. John Simpson of Prosperity, is in town visiting relatives.

Mrs. S. W. Craps is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Dr. Mack's family are all improving, also Mrs. D. M. Moore.

Large quantities of Elberta peaches are being shipped from here daily.

Miss Lula and Gertrude Oxner are attending the summer school at Rock Hill.

Miss Ella Lou Able, who has been spending a few weeks in Atlanta, has returned home. Her sister, Mrs. H. L. Bridges, accompanied her.

Misses Carrie and Ola Derrick have returned from a visit to Orangeburg. Mrs. Charlie Derrick accompanied them home.

Letters of Interest From Our Regular Correspondents, and They Are All Newsy.

Baxter and Hulon Dots.

We are suffering for rain and the crops have lost their lustre. Where rough manure was used to either corn or cotton the crop is suffering much worse. Man can plant and cultivate but the rain and increase must come from God.

It was our pleasure to be at the old soldiers reunion at Leesville where we met many of our old friends and comrades of by-gone days, and the candidates. Oh, my! Are not they kind and obliging? Well, we'll remember them—bye and bye. The crowd was large and well behaved—until late in the evening, at the baseball game, when there was much confusion and a great deal of open profanity. Now, Mr. Editor, what I am going to say I know will be unpopular, but I feel it my duty and I am going to speak it plain, regardless of what the world may think of it, and this is it: This baseball game is one of the most popular and rapidly growing sins of our day. Not only the church members, but the preachers are often found engaged, or looking on. In your opinion they had just as well witness a game of cards or a public dance. God help the Christian people of our country to stop and think what they are doing. Whatsoever you are doing to the glory of God you can engage in. Are you glorifying God in the baseball game. Look at the time and money lost that could be spent in the service of our country and the glory of God. I hope every preacher and Sunday school worker will raise their voice against this popular sin.

Master John Lowman, who has been confined to his bed for three weeks with fever, is improving.

Hulon Sunday school is making arrangements for its annual picnic Saturday, the 23d inst. Everybody is invited.

DOCTORS SAID HE WOULD NOT LIVE.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continuing to improve until I was entirely well." Sold by Timmons Bros.

PAUL E. HETTO, Swansea.

Our Summer School is growing in interest. Seventy teachers are in attendance.

Col. Orlando Sheppard, of the Edgefield bar, was here Monday on professional business.

Rev. H. L. Baggott, the beloved pastor of our Baptist Church, who has recently been assisting Rev. J. R. Carson at Egypt, Ga., in a series of revival meetings, has returned to Saluda.

Mr. J. C. Wise, while working on his new residence last Friday, fell from a scaffold and received several bruises, including a dislocated shoulder and a bad scar. Mr. Wise is getting along o. k. at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Webber Edwards, Capt. B. J. Coleman, Mr. B. F. Forrest, M. S. Mattie Sloan and others from Saluda, attended the Re-union at Leesville last Friday. All report a big time.

The 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rice, of Good Hope, was severely bitten by mad dog last Tuesday. Mr. Rice left with his daughter at once for Harlem, Ga., for mad-dog treatment.

Mr. William C. Smith, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the Okechout Hill section, is quite ill and is not expected to live long. He is the oldest living brother of Messrs. W. K. and I. B. Smith, of near Batesburg.

Uncle George Wise, the Saluda county mule king, was in Saluda Monday as usual.

The candidates for the various offices are on the move now. They all advocate majority rule and a more patriotic set of fellows cannot be found. Kissing babies is the order of the day and a candy and chewing gum.

Editor A. B. Cargile, Mrs. Cargile and little Johnnie have returned from the meeting of the State Press Association at White Stone Lithia Springs.

News has just reached Saluda that a dead "nigger" was found Monday morning about one mile from town, Pope Simpkins by name. An inquest is in progress. Verdict not known, but the negro is dead beyond a doubt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Amaker, with Miss Ida Krepps, of Big Creek, was in Saluda last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Carson are at Harris Lithia Springs.

Mr. Frank W. Crouch, of State constabulary fame, whose headquarters are in Charleston, came to Saluda Friday to visit his wife and child. Mrs. Crouch and little son will accompany Mr. Crouch to Charleston.

Saluda, July 19th Long Horn.
